Hammurabi Human Rights Organization (HHRO)

“Service Hubs”

Baghdad, November 25, 2018

In light of the plans and programs related to “Respond” project carried out by a consortium of 14 research institutions included HHRO, on the study of migration at multi levels and their impact on Europe and beyond, the Hammurabi Human Rights Organization (HHRO), announced today the establishment of Service Hubs to support the vulnerable communities from Syrian refugees and internally displaced Iraqis living in camps in Erbil and Nineveh.

Through the Service Hubs, HHRO will focus on improving the resilience of youth through Art. HHRO will provide youth of age 6-17 from both Syrian refugees and internally displaced Iraqis the opportunity to use Art (Painting, music, and traditional hand crafts) to express themselves and to preserve their culture and traditions. Also, HHRO will establish Legal Clinics to provide IDPs and refugees with Legal Counseling and Education to promote Human Rights and peaceful co-existence. HHRO will conduct a series of seminars to educate IDPs and Refugees on: Human Rights, with special focus on the right to work and social protection; the legal requirements to obtain missing documents; compensation; and voluntary return. Also, HHRO will use its network of volunteers to provide free consultation and legal assistance to those in need.

Therefore, we call upon the families of Syrian refugees, displaced persons and young people to contact the Hammurabi Human Rights Organization to get benefit from these services and to Contact the headquarters and offices HHRO referred below to find out more.
